A Potosi Man's Experience.

Can you doubt the evidence of this Potosi citizen?

You can verify Potosi endorsement. Read this:

H. C. Gayton, wagonmaker, says: "I was having trouble with my kidneys some time ago and had to get up at night to pass the secretions. I had a lame back and every time I stooped, a pain shot through me. Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than any other medicine I ever used. The kidney secretions became natural, the lameness and pain left my back and I was no longer bothered by having to get up at night. I give Doan's Kidney Pills all the credit for making me well."

TOOMBS UTTERS ONE ERROR

Noted for Accuracy, Famous Publicist Makes Mistake in Georgia Constitutional Convention.

In the Georgia constitutional convention of 1877 so usually accurate a publicist as General Robert Toombs uttered a singular error. He was contending in a speech for enough courts in Georgia to assure speedy justice and at one point in the debate he said: "I only desire to say one word. Six hundred and fifty years ago our rude ancestors met upon a plain at Runnymede and established a great system of judiciary in one line of bad Latin. They made King John say, 'We will sell to none, we will deny to none, we will delay to none, right and justice, and we must make as many courts as are necessary to carry out those grand utterances.'

Actually there is no "plain" at Runnymede, as those who have visited the historic locality know. Anciently there was a running-mere, or meadow, on the Middlesex shore of the Thames, where races were pulled off. Possibly the doughty baron held some mass meeting in the meadow, but history holds fast that the Magna Charta was signed on an island off shore, nearer the Surrey bank, and which has ever since been known as Charter Island. In London in 1900 there was a sale of the island and the wonder was voiced in the public press why the government did not purchase it and erect upon it some suitable memorial.

Louis Glaser, traveling salesman for the Marx & Haas Clothing Co., of St. Louis, who "made" Potosi on his trips for many years, died suddenly on Friday night, Nov. 2, at a hotel in Dexter, Mo. He was 58 years of age. A peculiar incident in his death is that thirty-five years before to the day he started to work for the company, Dugler was the first town he made and it was there that he received his first order.

Mr. James Brant of Trout passed through town Tuesday noon with a fine five months' old thoroughbred Hereford bull, which he had selected from the herd of Ed Drew of Caledonia. Mr. Brant stated that he would use the animal to grade up his future cattle production. The bull he bought was much larger than an ordinary yearling. Mr. Drew, Brant informed us, makes a specialty of breeding Herefords, and has a fine herd of thoroughbred stock.

What is said to be the second largest blast furnace in the world is now being erected near Fremont, in Carter county, on the Current River Railroad. Just who is back of the company, known as the Mid-Continent Iron Company, no one seems to know. A railroad has been built from the Current River line to the site of the smelter and plants for the manufacture of sulphuric acid, wood alcohol and extracting the most valuable minerals from the ore. —Wayne County Journal.

One dead and another severely injured is the toll of an accident that occurred here last Friday afternoon about 3 o'clock at the Miller street crossing when an engine being given a "try-out" in the yards, backed into an automobile owned and driven by J. M. Christ of this city. With Mr. Christ in the car was Frank S. Bayless, a salesman for the Bartlett Candy Company. Neither men were killed outright but Bayless, who was taken to a hospital in St. Louis Friday night, died about midnight Saturday night. Mr. Christ was in a critical condition for some time but is now improving and attending surgeons believe that he will recover.—De Soto Times.
